Administrative Note

The Milwaukee Parental Choice Program (PCP) provided public funding for low-income students from Milwaukee Public Schools (MPS) to attend private schools. For each student enrolled in the choice program, the state provided an amount equal to the per pupil state general equalization aid that would have gone to MPS if the student had enrolled there.

In the initial 1990-1991 school year, PCP funded 341 students in 7 private schools. Five years later, in the 1994-1995 school year, 830 students and 12 schools participated.
