Some considerations:

- All prices are for the garment (labor and wool), excluding shipping.
- This project has no administrative costs. The price is for the fair work of the women weavers and for the purchase of the raw material directly from a cooperative of alpaca wool producers in the city of La Paz (Bolivia).
- Available colors may vary depending on availability at the alpaca yarn factory.
- Note that colors may vary from images.
- Please note that measurements are not exact and may vary from 0.5-1 inch.
- Care instructions: hand wash cold or in washing machine in wool setting. Use neutral soap or baby soap. Iron at minimal temperature.

If you want to give a gift, think about collaborating with this project to help improve the personal development of women weavers and the living conditions of their families.
